We invite proposals for the 13th Annual Eurasian Peace Science Conference, to be held in person on January 24-25, 2025, at the Faculty of Political Science, University of Zagreb. The conference's goals are to broaden cooperation and intellectual dialogue among Eurasian and global peace science scholars, and to bring together the most up-to-date and relevant research on peace and cooperation.

The deadline for proposals submissions is August 31, 2024. Proposals submitted after that date will only be considered if presentation slots remain available. We will notify the successful participants by September 30, 2024.

Proposals addressing all aspects of peace science, conflict and cooperation are welcome, including:

- (a) empirical studies of political violence and peaceful resolution;
- (b) quantitative and formal analyses of conflict and peace processes;
- (c) peace science methodology and theory, including qualitative approaches, as well as theories;
- (d) alliances, investment, trade, and conflict;
- (e) economic and political causes of international and domestic violence, encompassing war, ethnic conflict, terrorism, and criminal activity;
- (f) contemporary regional conflicts, particularly in Eurasia and the Middle East;
- (g) security and foreign policy;
- (h) conflict analysis, management, and resolution;
- (i) peaceful change;
- (j) peace and global issues and challenges, including coping with pandemics such as COVID-19;
- (k) urban conflict and cooperation.

Prospective participants are invited to submit an individual paper proposal that should include: a title, an abstract, and contact information, including e-mail, academic affiliation, and rank.

We look forward to welcoming you to Zagreb in January 2025.

Email epsconference@fpzg.hr for more details.

Successful paper proposals will be notified by 30 September 2024. For questions, please contact epsconference@fpzg.hr

A field trip is planned on 26 January to Jasenovac, which was a concentration and extermination camp established in occupied Yugoslavia during World War II, and to Turanj, a memorial-site dedicated to Croatian veterans of the nation's Homeland War.
